

COZY CHRISTMAS AT 03 AIRPORTS

The second half of 2016 welcomes SAGS Cam Ranh as our new station at Cam Ranh Int'l Airport (CXR). Partnership with airlines is much strengthened at all 03 airports.

As of 01 July 2016, we have expanded to Cam Ranh Int'l Airport (CXR) and secured contracts with 16 airline customers.

Our latest airline customer at CXR is Hainan Airlines (HU) who has launched the first flight from Shenzhen to Cam Ranh as of 18 December 2016. HU operates 04 flights weekly by Boeing B737.

More airlines at SGN & DAD

15 September has seen the first flight of Vanilla Air to SGN airport. The carrier from Japan operates daily flight by Airbus A320.

Next ! We welcome Thai Lion Air's maiden flight October-end connecting passengers from Thailand to Vietnam by Boeing B737.

November also welcomes Ethiopian Airlines cargo flights by Boeing B777F to SGN. At the same time, Xiamen Airlines, the fifth largest carrier in China, launches Xiamen – Ho Chi Minh City sector on daily basis by Boeing B737.

In December, Vietjet Air launches 02 more overseas stations including Hong Kong and Kaohsiung airports. Now, the carrier flies to 09 overseas airports from SGN.

In DAD, we welcome Hainan Airlines September-end with the current frequency of 06 flights weekly.

Malaysia's AirAsia has increased frequency to daily operation by Airbus A320 at DAD airport.

Korea-based Jin Air has secured the record as the highest frequency foreign operator at DAD. Now, the airline has 21 flights weekly to DAD airport including 07 wide-body Boeing B777.

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year.

